

2018 POWER OF TEN Regional Summit Music City Center September 13 Program Timeline

Doors open at 7:30 AM 8:30 AM – Registration & Networking

8:00-8:40: Bonus Session: What's Up Next for Middle Tennessee, Toks Omishakin, Deputy Commissioner/Chief Environment and Planning, Tennessee Dept of Transportation.

8:40 AM – Welcome and Opening Remarks Carol Hudler CEO Cumberland Region Tomorrow

8:50 AM – WHERE WE WANT TO LIVE: Ryan Gravel, SixPitch

The Atlanta Beltline was born in academia as an idea for a better way of life. Now, it's a $4 billion infrastructure project in the early stages of implementation. Its co-founder and author, Ryan Gravel, will describe how this catalyst project came to life, what it means, and why it matters. Building on the title of his book, Where We Want to Live, Gravel will expand on these ideas, concluding with his most current project – the Atlanta City Design. This daunting effort uncovers the city's civic identity to ensure that its unprecedented growth will deliver an Atlanta in which its citizens will want to live.

10:10 AM – COFFEE WITH THE MAYORS: Connect with elected officials in an informal environment

10:40 AM – NEW METRICS FOR LIVABILITY: What gets measured gets improved. Michael Skipper, Executive Director, Greater Nashville Regional Council shares new metrics for the region's livability & the concept of a regional comprehensive plan.

11:10 AM – REACTIVATING THE OLD DOWNTOWN:

Moderated by CRT Director Clay Petrey, AICP

Examples from Gallatin, Donna Belote, Main Street Director

Dickson, Don Wiess Jr. City Mayor of Dickson

Lebanon, Kim Parks, Executive Director of Historic Lebanon

11:55 AM – WHAT'S WORTH $22 BILLION AND MORE?: The Value of Farms, Forests and Green Spaces: What we have today how we might think more strategically about the future. Lynnisae Roehrich-Patrick, CRT Board Chair and Former Executive Director, Tennessee Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations

12:10 PM – GET PUMPED!: Mountain biking is more popular than golf now. Hear plans for Middle Tennessee's pumptrack park. Rebecca Wynd, Founder-Director of Outdoor Encounter

12:35 PM – BUFFET LINE & LUNCH

1:10 PM – RISING TO THE CHALLENGE: By 2041, Nashville International Airport (BNA) passenger traffic is expected to grow from 14 million today to more than 23 million. Metropolitan Nashville Airport Authority President and CEO, Doug Kreulen, will share the BNA Vision, a dynamic growth and expansion plan for a world-class airport.

1:45 PM – WRAP UP

Call 615-986-2698 or e-mail us at office@cumberlandregiontomorrow.org or Register online for sponsorships, or tickets!

